- c. Woodlands County - Absent
- d. Parent Society – Kristin Machuk will be resigning the position of President chair for the parent society as she will be moving, the parent society will be looking for a new chair. Kristin was a great contributor to our school and community, and we wish her all the best in her future endeavors.
- e. Pre-school report – Jenni Williams mentioned there are 20 kids in pre-school, for fundraising they will be doing a bottle drive and poinsettia sales. She is still working on the outdoor play space, she is still waiting on volunteers.
- f. Resignation of Parent Society President chair and Parent Council Vice President chair, on behalf for the Parent Council we are grateful for the hard work and effort it take to volunteer, and we thanked the chairs for their time and efforts. Both the Parent Council and Parent Society will be seeking individuals to fill the chair positions.
- g. Questions and concerns – A discussion was brought forth by a parent about alternate bussing fees and to try and come up with a solution for the $50 fee when the alternate bus is on the sale route, also waiving the fee for bussing kids going to Barrhead Jr. High, trustee Jennifer will bring up the concern to the board. Consistency in the grade ¾ classroom with teachers and aids, and quality of education. CTF and physical education, what can we do as parents to improve. Penny decided to table the questions and concerns, and schedule a special meeting for the future of our school and children.
